

Night City's Lipstick Sliders Trounce Backyard Bulldawgs

By Kira Tsunayoshi

Hot match in South Night City's local Derby League as the Lipstick Sliders, led by 'Hit and Run', faced off against the Backyard Bulldawgs, led by 'Biohazard'. Both teams were undefeated in the current season at the start of this match. Pride was on the line and the match was expected to be on the violent side, which did not disappoint those fans who only show up for the carnage.

Though the players were still mobile, despite numerous solid hits in the early game, it was only a matter of time until the injury rosters started getting crowded. Several MedTechs on hand remained on their feet for what seemed the entire match.

Whether out of anger or revenge, 'Hit and Run' came back in the second half with a vengeance after the Backyard Bulldawgs took an early lead. Focused on taking 'Lead Jammer', she proceeded to score THREE grand slams in the same jam which put the Sliders ahead, 40-38.

By the end, it was Lipstick Sliders, 46 to 43, who remain undefeated, for now.

Sparks Fly at 'The Slammer'

By Donnie James

The most recent craze of Chainsaw Blitzing has taken South Night City by storm, as The Slammer continues to build up its own Arena.

With four teams of 5 in this latest match, the 20 contestants in Slammer's Arena found themselves quickly culled.

By the end, it was Mirage and Vulture, the only remaining members of Team 3, scoring the €180,000 reward.

Word on the streets is the next match should be even wilder as the Slammer works to get its hands on a shipment of motion-sensitive claymores from a local Fixer simply known as "Mr. Sunshine."

You can catch this week's Blitz at your local DataTerm PayPerView for only €15!

Helix Code Headlines Outworld Sounds Festival

By Bruce Filgore

The recent Festival, hosted in Night City's Watson Development district, turned thousands of heads over the weekend as Helix Code, Avarice, Discipline Theory and many others, graced the impromptu-stage.

Bringing memories of Retro-Industrial music back to the scene, many local Rockerboys and Artists have been showing up in droves to attend the nearly sold-out event.

Available by Braindance Stream for those who could not afford the ticket price, local DataNet stations have reported Bandwidth failures in multiple parts of the city due to overloaded systems.
